

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

For the week of June 16, 2024

One of the best things you can do after hearing truths from the Word of God is to talk about them with others. Here are some questions to help get the conversation started. (hint: the first couple of questions are meant to “break the ice” and get people talking)

- What is the first thing that you can remember being obsessed with (or desiring to have) as a child?
- What is something you currently want to have...or something that you wanted for a long time and then finally got it?
- Talk about what you learned about the “Feast of Tabernacles” and the “water ceremony” on the last day. Read John 7:37-38 and talk about how understanding their traditions deepens your understanding of what Jesus said.
- What are some ways people today might seek to satisfy their spiritual thirst through physical or material means? How effective are these methods?
- Reflect on a time when you thought you needed something but realized later that it didn’t bring lasting satisfaction. How did that experience shape your understanding of your true needs?
- What does it mean to truly trust Jesus with your desires and needs? Can you share a personal example where you had to trust Him in a significant way?
- Read John 7:38-39 and talk about how the Holy Ghost is like ‘water’ in the life of a believer.
- How would you describe a believer that allows the Holy Ghost to ‘flow’ in their lives? What do they do that could describe them as “walking in the Spirit” (Galatians 5:16)?
- Take some time to pray together.
